GARDENING WITH A Gardening Series ALTITUDE

Dirk Gosnell

Owner, Lake View Gardens

As a follow-up to Dirk's entertaining and informative class on container gardening, join the Dubois-Crowheart Conservation District and the Adult Education & Cyber Center on a field trip to tour the greenhouses at Lake View Gardens. View first hand how Dirk incorporates container gardens and greenhouses to run a successful business while also tackling the challenges of the short growing season that is an inherent part of gardening at high altitude.
